

ArchAngel

Michael Johnson Jr. AKA ArchAngel is a young artist with a unique perspective on the art form of Rap. The artist's dream is to mix Hip Hop Culture and Christian Theology. There can be no doubt that his dream has become a true reality. For ArchAngel has found a way to blend both ideas into one. He calls this mixture "Hip Hop Theology." From a young age ArchAngel experienced the wonders of world travel. Son of a military father, the young artist saw the wonders of Italy, Germany, and Cuba. After being stationed over seas his family returned to the states, where he lived in Virginia, Florida and now his present home San Diego.

ArchAngel's musical influences reach many arenas. Some of his favorite artists include: Elvis Crespo (Salsa); OutKast (Rap); ETW (Christian Rap) and DC Talk (Christian Rap / Christian Rock). States ArchAngel, "There is such a thing as unconditional love. I also believe there is more than one perspective of Hip Hop Culture. I want to tap musical influences from life that have never been tapped. Through the Grace of God, I know there is a way to bring my music to the people for the glorification of the King."

Education and relationship evangelism are the key cornerstones of this rappers message and his music. He will take the extra time to speak to you, from his heart, about the music and the Word. ArchAngel is a true classicist.
