

Chozen Vesselz

Chozen Vesselz, the hip-hop group was formed in the fall of 2000 in Goldsboro, N.C., It is composed of Michael Clark a.k.a. Ya-nye and Jermaine Eaddy a.k.a. Reo Grand. Chozen Vesselz's main focus and mission statement is to: Share the Gift of God to all men. Their message, combined with music, emphasizes the truth about God and the condition of the world today. Chozen Vesselz strive for a multi-dimensional approach in their music. "Our lyrics cover a variety of spiritual and social issues that are relayed over urban soundscapes." Both members of Chozen Vesselz have been pulled out of darkness to share the marvelous news of the kingdom. Hailing from different back grounds, our music is designed to reach and influence a wide range of people from drug dealers and dealers, to high school students, dropouts, to college graduates, the workforce, and even for those who don't know their purpose in life". Chozen Vesselz have performed, spoken, and ministered at several places throughout the East Coast including: I Believe You in the Bronx, N.Y., Holy Hip Hop Awards 2003 in Atlanta, Georgia, Life Music Christian Fellowship in Baltimore, Maryland, SonShine Fest at the University of North Carolina at Asheville, God-Fest 2003 in Goldsboro, North Carolina, Youth of Faith Nation/Campus Crusade with Greg Devries (former Teen Radio Speaker), the Internal Expo in Morganton, North Carolina, and various clubs and Churches in the North Carolina and Virginia area. They also get constant air play on 102.9 FM WELS radio in Winston, North Carolina.
