Richard D. Cutright Jr.(Me) is the son of the late Elder Richard D. Cutright Sr. and Sister Celest V. Cutright (the baddest woman under 5 feet on a organ). Growing up in a hosue surrounded with the pressence of the Hoily Spirit planted a seed that I did not know existed. Suffering from a severe speech impediment (i had the machine gun mouth), God delivered me from stuttering when I start freestyling. Even though many opportunites presented themselves for the gifts He gave me to be presented on a world stage, I felt conflicted because i knew that we were created for the purpose of worship. As time went by my dude Ron hit me with Fruity Loops and a few moths later i got reintroduced to my dude Glassez, who attended a church my mom played for in the past. We began to do a song every youth event they had at the church, but it wasnt until we did a taping for JC's HipHop Show (shouts to Holyfilled!) that we met Camp55. They told us they had a young mens bible study group, and once we began fellowshipping we took the name of the group and came together like Voltron!! Me and Glassez form the legs
Camp55 form the arms
Christ forms the head
And you get THE M.A.F.I.A
Men After the Faithful I Am!!!!
So long story short, I serve as Artist/Producer/A&R for Noema Records and we are chasing after The Sprit and will continue to do so.

I have worked with Hood, R-Swift, The M.a.f.i.a, Hallel, Nicci Canada, Cutty Boi aka Mr. Nascar
