I-66 Entertainment was established as an independent gospel record label. We are committed to producing and delivering music that is relative to today's culture—and that exemplifies and glorifies God. We have positioned I-66 Entertainment to reach diverse demographics with regards to musical style. Our passion as a team is to share with the world the love of God through exciting and talented artists. All of us at I-66 Entertainment are committed to God's plan--our hearts are with God as He directs us and uses us to share His message of love and forgiveness to the utter-most-parts of the world.
