

KRE8TOR

The artist Kre8tor was born in Rochester, New York. At an early age of 13 he gave his life to Christ and was blessed with the gift of writing/producing and arranging music for the Lord.

Backslide

Sad to say the Kre8tor slowly started to backslide and eventually became apart of that same environment that he hated. The street life was teaching Kre8tor about drugs, money, women, theft, and guns and not putting God first but depending on yourself and no one else.

Experienced

But we all know that once you have experienced the Lord you never are truly the same. Many years pass and from time to time he heard God's voice calling him but he continued on his path to destruction.

West Coast Rap

In his 20's he moved to California and started to build his name in the secular music industry by producing West Coast up incoming and established artist. Eventually, Kre8tor was introduced to the former member of G-Unit: The Game.

Producer

Kre8tor then became the main producer for The Game's label "The Black Wallstreet". By being apart of The Games label basically meant that he would be labeled as gang related or just a Blood. So kre8tor decided that he did not want to become apart of the same useless violence he grew up with as a child, he also felt like he would be selling his soul for money and fame so he decided to just say no and go back to the grind of hustling tracks.

Mainstream deal

After that Kre8tor landed a publishing deal he then started to create tracks for that particular company. Then one day the publishing company heard a track with Kre8tor rapping on it and wanted to shop him for an Artist/production deal with nim for an Arusi/production deal with Virgin Records. Just as the deal was about to close the label decided to sign the artist known as Gorilla Black, this is just another example of how the lord put a stop to his plans.

Own indy label

So he created a new West Coast label with national distribution through Thump/Universal and started signing artist in the Chicano rap genre. So that pretty much became most of Kre8tor life and he found himself surrounded again by the gang bang life soaking up the lifestyle.

Father

Years then passed in California and his label then started to grow and he was working hard to push the music. Then one day it hits him that his son is about to be 14 years old and that he realized he's been gone for 6 years. Kre8tor basically felt a stronger sensation to go back home to be the father he supposed to be.

Home

He now realizes that it was God's voice again calling him back home to get him away from all of the mess he was apart of. When kre8tor moved back home he said he was able to hear God's voice one night asking him "What If" and that's where his current song and video came from.

Label Double Edge Ministries

Kre8tor feels like God let him go through these things in order for his testimony to touch the people that his heart cry's out for. So Kre8tor has shut down his secular label and started his label Double Edge Ministries where he is creating music for the honor and glory of Christ with the same energy he gave to the world. Double Edge Ministries focus will be to the lost youth in these streets to show them the power, love and salvation of Christ through hip hop music.

Debut Album

Kre8tor is currently working on his first solo album called "The Battle" that will be in stores early 2008 so make sure to look out for a man of God who has all of the elements to overcome this world.
