

M2B

M2B Made 2 Believe The Vision...The Dream...The Appointment...The Anointing The connection of faith, the apple of God's heart.. All in one place, one time, one union....M2B... a duo created for God's purpose... to achieve the mission... all are made 2 believe... through song and spoken word. They come by way of Fort Mills, South Carolina where their talents and precision are honed by commitment to the Word.- a collaboration between two 17 year old friends, who have a love for Jesus Christ, Christian rap and gospel music. J-ONE (Brazill Vasquez) and Mail Boii (Cameron Jennings), incorporate a raw fusion of gospel music and rap Which is M2B. Not only do they write all of their music; they produce as well. M2B is from the heart of brazill, who came up with the name of the group based on John chapter 1. A revelation - "that we are made to believe and that we must place our faith in him", says j-one (brazill) M2B received the recognition and popularity after the duo performed and won at divine talents, an artist showcase in charlotte NC; shortly after winning the contest, they began getting invitations to perform throughout the Carolinas. They have ministered to over 800 youth at NEWBIRTH Charlotte Hype Night and most recently, at City Dive- an inner city project on the Westside of Charlotte. Their anointed voices and dynamic sound ministers to young and old alike; which is the reason they do what they do; and although these young talents are gifted in sports, the arts is to spread the love and message of Jesus Christ around the world through their music with one goal in mind..... THAT MANY WILL BE "MADE2BELIEVE"
