

Young Saint

Saint a.k.a Will E.D. is a rapper than crosses every line that Hip-Hop, Rap and R&B have ever laid out. Growing up in the north side of Chicago, Saint's first love was Rap. Listening to artists such as Run D.M.C., Rick Ross, Slick Rick, Doug E Fresh and so many others he instantly fell in love with the music, the beat and most of all the knowledge that the mic and hip-hop respected you if you kept it real and had something to say no matter what the skin color. For years he became obsessed with new artists such as Biggie, Tupac, Nas, Jay-Z, but all the while he felt the call to be different but at such a young age he didn't know what would set him apart. Growing up in the church, Saint always loved the choir and gospel music but knowing that singing in the church wouldn't satisfy him he turned to a back to his ways of secular rap and speaking about things that the world wanted him to. During college, he hit the peak of his career, producing artists, and working on his own label, he had it all or so he thought...One night after a long day in the studio he came home to find a man in his house who put a gun to his head and told him he better be ready to die. By the grace of God, his life was saved, and he moved away from the secular world but still confused about what path to take he turned back to the only thing that had been there for him the entire time...God. God directed his foot steps and while studying to be a pastor God called him to rise up and use his talents to reach the masses, God called him to pick up the mic one more time, dust it off and bring a message only this time it wasn't Saint's message, it was Gods. Saint is a God Warrior who is bringing a message of truth and is pulling no punches when it comes to those who have turned their back from God. As he stats in his hit single "Fake Church" "I spent eight years of life livin' in sin now my life's mission is your soul to win". Saint may not on paper have the stereotypical background for what qualifies him to rap, but God has put an anointing on his life and on his ministry with his things in store ministry...with big things in store.
